Rules of Conduct for NMLS Approved Pre-Licensure (PE) and Continuing Education (CE) Courses

Version NMLS 2.4

The Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act (SAFE Act), requires that state-licensed MLOs complete pre-licensing (PE) and continuing education (CE) courses as a condition to be licensed. The SAFE Act also requires that all education completed as a condition for state licensure be NMLS approved. Since 2009 NMLS has established course design, approval, and delivery standards which NMLS approved course providers are required to meet. To further ensure students meet the education requirements of the SAFE Act, NMLS has established a Rules of Conduct (ROC). The ROC, which have been approved by the NMLS Mortgage Testing & Education Board, and the NMLS Policy Committee, both of which are comprised of state regulators, are intended to stress that NMLS approved education be delivered and completed with integrity.

Rules of Conduct

As an individual completing either pre-licensure education (PE) or continuing education (CE), I agree to abide by the following rules of conduct:

1. I attest that I am the person who I say I am and that all my course registration information is accurate.
2. I acknowledge that I will be required to show a current government issued form of identification prior to, and during the course, and/or be required to answer questions that are intended to verify/validate my identity prior to, and during the course.
3. I understand that the SAFE Act and state laws require me to spend a specific amount of time in specific subject areas. Accordingly, I will not attempt to circumvent the requirements of any NMLS approved course.
4. I will not divulge my login ID or password or other login credential(s) to another individual for any online course.
5. I will not seek or attempt to seek outside assistance to complete the course.
6. I will not give or attempt to give assistance to any person who is registered to take an NMLS approved pre-licensure or continuing education course.
7. I will not engage in any conduct that creates a disturbance or interferes with the administration of the course or other students' learning.
8. I will not engage in any conduct that would be contrary to good character or reputation, or engage in any behavior that would cause the public to believe that I would not operate in the mortgage loan business lawfully, honestly or fairly.
9. I will not engage in any conduct that is dishonest, fraudulent, or would adversely impact the integrity of the course(s) I am completing and the conditions for which I am seeking licensure or renewal of licensure.

I understand that NMLS approved course providers are not authorized by NMLS to grant exceptions to these rules and that I alone am responsible for my conduct under these rules. I also understand that these rules are in addition to whatever applicable rules my course provider may have.

I understand that the course provider or others may report any alleged violations to NMLS and that NMLS may conduct an investigation into alleged violations and that it may report alleged violations to the state(s) in which I am seeking licensure or maintain licenses, or to other states.

I understand the CSBS Privacy Notice is applicable to these Rules of Conduct. The CSBS Privacy Notice can be found here:

https://nationwidelicingsystem.org/about/policies/NMLS%20Document%20Library/CSBS%20External%20Privacy%20Notice-6.18%20\(1\).pdf.pdf)

I further understand that the results of any investigation into my alleged violation(s) may subject me to disciplinary actions by the state(s) or the State Regulatory Registry (SRR), including removal of any course from my NMLS record, and/or denial or revocation of my license(s).

1 Hour NV SAFE: Nevada Qualified Employee Mortgage Regulations

Course Syllabus

Course Description

The Nevada Division of Mortgage Lending (the Division) requires mortgage company employees to take a 1-hour course covering Division-defined mortgage regulation topics as part of the QE's annual continuing education requirement. This course covers topics relating to Nevada qualified employees.

The first module of this course is an introduction and an overview of the Division. The second module is an outline of the additional requirements for mortgage companies located in Nevada Administrative Code (NAC) 645B and Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) 645B such as responsibilities, record keeping requirements, and advertisement restrictions. The third module examines other covered services supervised by the Division, such as foreclosure consultants, loan modification consultants, and mortgage servicers. The fourth and last module categories a variety of unfair mortgage lending practices that are prohibited as codified in NRS 598D.

Topics and Learning Objectives

This course is broken down into several learning topics. At the end of the course a 15-question final exam will be given. The topics included in this course are:

1. The Nevada Division of Mortgage Lending (7 minutes)
2. The Operation of Mortgage Companies (15 minutes)
3. Mortgage Lending and Related Professions (10 minutes)
4. Unfair Lending Practices (8 minutes)
5. Final exam (10 minutes)

Total study time: 1 hour (50 minutes)

This course will prepare Nevada licensed MLOs to:

- Recognize the importance of a licensee's fiduciary duty to consumers.
- Identify the regulatory agency who enforces Nevada's mortgage licensing regulations.
- Review the requirements for obtaining a mortgage company license.
- Describe the requirements for a mortgage brokerage qualified employee.
- Identify the retention period for transaction files.
- Demonstrate the disclosure requirements when working as both a mortgage and a real estate licensee.

- Review the rules when advertising and promoting mortgage products to consumers.
- Identify what a covered service is.
- Summarize who is defined as a foreclosure or loan modification consultant.
- Review the initial and supplemental disclosure requirements for covered service providers.
- Describe the record keeping requirements for foreclosure or loan modification consultants.
- Classify how a person obtains authorization to become a mortgage servicer.
- Paraphrase a mortgage servicer's fiduciary responsibilities to their clients.
- Outline the protection given to government employees when experiencing a temporary government shutdown.
- Outline several prohibited unfair lending practices relating to homeowner insurance, ability to repay, prepayment penalties, and credit insurance.
- Describe available remedies for borrowers who are holding onto a mortgage loan originated using unfair lending practices.

NMLS ID Required

You must have an NMLS ID to receive credit for this course. You will need this number before you begin the course.

If you already have an NMLS ID but don't remember what it is:

- Login into NMLS
- Click on the Composite View tab.
- Click View Individual on the sub-header row.
- The number that appears in parentheses after your name is your NMLS ID number.

If you do not have an NMLS ID and need to obtain one, use the instructions available in the NMLS Resource Center:

Technical Requirements

Students only need a computer with a functioning and accessible internet connection. This course works on all modern browsers and operating systems including Microsoft Edge, Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, Apple Safari, and Opera. Students are responsible for internet service charges.

Completion Requirements

This is an online mastery-based course. Students must complete all reading materials, question assessments, and pass end-of-section quizzes to make progress. Quizzes require a minimum 70% passing score and can be taken as many times as necessary in order to pass.

Completion of the course requires passing a final examination of 15 multiple choice questions with a minimum score of 70%. Students that fail a final exam may retake the final exam as many times as needed to pass. The course is expected to take approximately 1 clock hour to complete.

Course Activities

The course contains segments that include reading, short question assessments, quizzes, and a final exam. Students are expected to interact and complete all activities to make course progress.

Students will be provided with the course content online. Students will be tested throughout the sections to determine if they are meeting the objectives and to develop a working knowledge that will help them to successfully use what they are learning.

Testing and Completion Expectations

Online, timed, and active participation is required to apply the learned material to case study material. Students will be tested periodically through the course to verify they understand the course material. Assessments are graded automatically upon student submission. Student cannot advance to the next module without demonstrating his or her comprehension of the previous module.

A final exam is given at the end of the course. The final exam consists of 15 questions in multiple choice format. The student must score 70% or above. Course credit will not be issued until the final exam has been successfully passed. Final exams may be retaken without limit if failed.

Issuance of Credit

After successfully passing the final exam, OnlineEd will notify the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System (NMLS) that the continuing education has been completed by the student. It is OnlineEd policy to have credit uploaded to the NMLS by the end of the following business day.

The student will have a printable course completion certificate available after passing the course final exam. The certificate is for the student's personal records and is not confirmation that the NMLS has received the notification that the student has completed the course final exam.

Policies on Cheating and Misrepresentation

Misrepresentation of personal identity is strictly forbidden for all OnlineEd courses. Falsifying personal information, forgery, and misrepresentation may result in immediate suspension. Additional actions by state and federal agencies may include loss or suspension of a license, failure to grant a license, fees, or criminal prosecution.

Cheating on courses that supply completion certificates, designations, or official credit is not tolerated. OnlineEd is not obligated to continue to furnish credit or continued support for students caught cheating on any part of the coursework or testing.

Breaks

Students are free to stop for a break at any time during the course for any length of time. Progress in the course is saved automatically. Breaks and periods of inactivity will not count towards the required seat time. Students will automatically be logged out after 6 minutes of inactivity and the inactive time will not count towards seat time.

Availability

This online course is available all day, every day after enrollment unless there is scheduled system maintenance. Courses are made available to students immediately upon purchase. Instructor and technical support are available during normal office hours of 8:00 am to 5:00 pm Pacific Time on Monday through Friday, excluding holidays. Online access to this course is available for 365 days from the enrollment date unless stated otherwise.

If this course is not completed within the given amount of time, a reinstatement fee may be charged. Course content will continue to be available to students after course completion.

Instructor Support

NMLS policy states that online self-study courses (OSS) do not include instructor support. Technical support questions should be directed to OnlineEd, Inc.

Refund Policy

All tuition and fees paid for the course are refundable when: (a) the course of instruction is discontinued by OnlineEd and such discontinuation has prevented a student from completing the course; or (b) the enrollment of the student was procured as a result of any misrepresentation in promotion materials of the school, or representation made by an owner or employee of the school. All refunds will be completed within 30 days after the effective date of enrollment termination. Refunds will not be given to any student after the student has successfully registered in a course or courses, as once registered, student has access to the registered courses. In hardship cases, OnlineEd may issue a refund at its sole discretion. OnlineEd does not issue retroactive partial refunds for courses that are subsequently discounted or put on sale after a student makes a purchase.
